How to Use This Journal

This journal was built for you, Whitney — for where you are right now. Entering the Church. Becoming a mother. Working a demanding job. Loving a husband whose heart you are praying for. You do not need to do this perfectly. You need to show up.

EACH MORNING

Open to the morning page. Read your anchor phrase. Pray the brief morning prayer. Then write in the prompt — uncensored, unedited. Let it be a conversation with God, not a performance.

EACH EVENING

Return to the evening page. The R.O.O.T.E.D. Examen walks you through the day using the full model. Even five minutes is enough. End with the evening gift.

THE BRIDGE THOUGHT

Beginning in Week 3, you will find a Bridge Thought at the bottom of each evening page. A true thought you can actually believe that moves you from where you are toward where God is inviting you.

THE STRESS PROTOCOL

On hard days — the days when everything is too much — turn to the Stress Protocol page. It is not a fix. It is a path back to your center.

YOUR GOALS

Your three goals are woven through every week's prompts. King: Close laptop by 5pm every day and give evenings fully to family and home. Queen: Pray the Rosary each morning and read each night before bed instead of being on my phone. Loaves & Fishes: Pray for Edgar by name every day this week.

SABBATH PAGES

Day 7 of each week is a Sabbath page — longer, more spacious. Look back at the week and receive what God has done.

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you." — Jeremiah 1:5

When the Weight Feels Too Heavy

The Stress Protocol

Whitney — you are holding a new baby, a demanding job, a new faith, and a marriage where you are praying alone. There will be days when the weight is simply too much. Your Melancholic depth means you feel everything fully. Your Phlegmatic steadiness means you often hold it all without showing it. This protocol is for the days when the inside is overwhelmed even when the outside looks composed.

①

PAUSE AND NAME IT

Stop. Take three slow breaths. Name the feeling plainly — without judging it.

I am overwhelmed. · I am afraid. · I am exhausted. · I feel unseen. · I am reaching for control.

Naming is not weakness. Naming is the beginning of truth.

②

REALITY — WHAT IS ACTUALLY TRUE?

Run the R of R.O.O.T.E.D.: What is objectively, factually true right now?

Not the story. Not the worst-case spiral. Not what it means about you.

Just the facts. Write them here:

③

PRAY THE ABANDONMENT PRAYER

"Father, I abandon myself into Your hands;

do with me what You will.

Whatever You may do, I thank You. I am ready for all, I accept all.

Let only Your will be done in me. I wish no more than this, O Lord.

Into Your hands I commend my soul." — Blessed Charles de Foucauld

④

ONE SMALL NEXT STEP

Not a plan. One step.

What is the smallest, most concrete thing you can do in the next ten minutes?

Drink water. Text one person. Hold Charlie. Sit down. That is enough.

⑤

RECEIVE — ASK FOR HELP

Your Pleaser and Hyper-Achiever will resist this step most. Ask anyway.

You are not meant to carry this alone. You are a branch, not the Vine.

Who can you call, text, or turn to right now?

After the storm: What did God show you in this moment?

Your Soul Portrait at a Glance

Return to this page whenever you need to remember who God made you to be.

TEMPERAMENT

Melancholic (Primary) · Phlegmatic (Secondary)

You feel deeply, think carefully, and hold yourself to high standards. The Phlegmatic in you brings steadiness beneath the depth — gentle, patient, a natural peacemaker. People feel safe with you. Both of these are how God wired you to love.

PREDOMINANT FAULT

FAULT	VIRTUE REMEDY	DAILY PRACTICE
Vanity	Simplicity — act for God's eyes alone	One hidden act no one will see
Sensuality	Temperance — ordered desire	Name one small mortification daily
Spiritual Sloth	Zeal — move before feeling arrives	Pray even when dry. Show up.
Fear & Control	Abandonment — entrust one thing daily	"Lord, I give You this."

TOP CHARISMS

Administration 10/10	Teaching 9/10	Prophecy 9/10	Wisdom 9/10
----------------------	---------------	---------------	-------------

SABOTEURS

Hyper-Achiever — ties worth to performance. Root wound: 'I am only valuable when achieving.' Gospel answer: Mary of Bethany, sitting and receiving.

Pleaser — says yes when she means no. Root wound: 'I am only safe when everyone approves.' Gospel answer: Galatians 1:10 — 'Am I seeking the approval of man, or of God?'

YOUR THREE GOALS

KING	Be more present and tender with the people in my life — closing my laptop by 5pm, tending home, marriage, friendships, and parish.
QUEEN	Care for my whole self — my health, happiness, and connection with God are the foundation for everything else in my life.
LOAVES & FISHES	I want Edgar to find faith, open his heart to Jesus, and to dedicate our family to God.

"You are entering the Church with charisms of Teaching and Prophecy already active. God is not waiting for you to be fully formed before He uses you. He is using you now."

Six-Week Virtue Tracker

One mark per day — not a grade, not a performance. Just fidelity. Show up.

WEEK / VIRTUE	D1	D2	D3	D4	D5	D6	D7
Wk 1 — Simplicity Do one thing today for God's eyes alone — something no one will see or thank you for.
Wk 2 — Zeal Pray before the feeling arrives. Rosary first, even on hard mornings.
Wk 3 — Temperance Name one small, chosen mortification today. Offer it for Edgar.
Wk 4 — Abandonment Name one thing you are trying to control. Say aloud: 'Lord, I give You this.'
Wk 5 — Humility Ask for help with one thing today that you would normally handle alone.
Wk 6 — Fidelity Show up to one practice today even when you don't feel like it.

NOTES ON YOUR VIRTUE PRACTICE

Week 1

Who Am I Before God?

Identity, Temperament & the Gaze of God

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you." — Jeremiah 1:5

THIS WEEK'S TEACHING

The R.O.O.T.E.D. Model begins with Reality — seeing yourself as God sees you, not as your performance defines you. This week you are invited to receive your identity rather than achieve it.

A NOTE FOR YOU, WHITNEY

Whitney — you wrote in your Queen Goal that your inner critic says 'you are not worth making time for, everything else is more important than you.' This week God is answering that lie directly. You are fearfully and wonderfully made — not despite your season, not after you clean the house or catch up at work. Now. As you are.

WEEK AT A GLANCE

MORNING ANCHOR	You are known before you do anything today. Receive that.
VIRTUE FOCUS	Simplicity — Do one thing today for God's eyes alone — something no one will see or thank you for.
SABOTEUR WATCH	Hyper-Achiever — she will want to use this journal to perform growth. Notice when you are doing the work to earn something. You already have it.
EVENING GIFT	Tonight, name one moment when you felt known today — even imperfectly.

Lord, You knew me before I was formed. Today, before I perform anything for anyone, let me simply receive that I am known and loved. Amen.

TODAY'S INTENTION

MORNING PRAYER · Read aloud before you write.

Lord, You knew me before I was formed. Today, before I perform anything for anyone, let me simply receive that I am known and loved. Amen.

Simplicity — Do one thing today for God's eyes alone — something no one will see or thank you for.

MORNING REFLECTION

God has known you since before your birth. You wrote that your inner critic says you are not worth making time for. What does God say back to that? Write His answer as if He is speaking directly to you.

SABOTEUR WATCH — Hyper-Achiever — she will want to use this journal to perform growth. Notice when you are doing the work to earn something. You already have it.

EVENING REFLECTION

Where did you feel most like yourself today?

Week 2

Where Am I Rooted?

Origin, Story & the Soil of Your Soul

"You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit." — John 15:16

THIS WEEK'S TEACHING

O in R.O.O.T.E.D. is Origin — where you came from, what has formed you, and what soil your roots are actually in. This week we look honestly at what has shaped you and bring it under God's gaze.

A NOTE FOR YOU, WHITNEY

Whitney — you came to OCIA as someone already formed by a lifetime of experiences, relationships, and beliefs. You are not starting over. God is integrating. Your longing for Edgar, your love for Charlie, your desire to build a real home — all of this is the material He is working with. Your story is not a liability.

WEEK AT A GLANCE

MORNING ANCHOR	Your story is not something to overcome. It is something to offer.
VIRTUE FOCUS	Zeal — Pray before the feeling arrives. Rosary first, even on hard mornings.
SABOTEUR WATCH	Avoider — she avoids difficult interior work by staying busy. If you find yourself skipping a prompt because it feels too heavy, that is the one to sit with.
EVENING GIFT	Tonight, name one thing from your past that you are grateful God did not waste.

Lord, You chose me before I understood what that meant. Today, help me trust that the soil I came from does not limit where You can take me. Amen.

MORNING REFLECTION

What drew you toward the Catholic Church? Not the intellectual reasons — the deeper pull. Write about a moment when something in you moved toward this. Was there a specific person, place, or experience?

SABOTEUR WATCH — Avider — she avoids difficult interior work by staying busy. If you find yourself skipping a prompt because it feels too heavy, that is the one to sit with.

What Overflows From Me?

Gifts, Charisms & the Light You Are Already Carrying

"Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others." — 1 Peter 4:10

THIS WEEK'S TEACHING

The first O in R.O.O.T.E.D. is Overflow — what flows naturally from who you are. Your charisms are not aspirations. They are already active. This week we name what is overflowing and begin to steward it deliberately.

A NOTE FOR YOU, WHITNEY

Whitney — your Loaves and Fishes goal is that Edgar would notice the joy, patience, love, and grace that shine out from you and ask where it comes from. That is not a strategy. That is a charism at work. Your Administration, Teaching, Prophecy, and Wisdom are already moving through you. This week, pay attention to where they show up.

WEEK AT A GLANCE

MORNING ANCHOR	Your gifts were given before you were formed. You are not earning them — you are unwrapping them.
VIRTUE FOCUS	Temperance — Name one small, chosen mortification today. Offer it for Edgar.
SABOTEUR WATCH	Pleaser — she gives her gifts to be approved of, not to serve God. Notice today: are you being warm and present with people from love, or from the need to be received?
EVENING GIFT	Tonight, name one place where your gifts flowed without effort. That is a charism at work.

Lord, You have placed gifts in me that I am only beginning to understand. Today, let me pay attention to where they are already moving — especially in my home. Amen.

MORNING REFLECTION

Administration: you see what is missing and know how to fill it. Your King Goal is about tending your kingdom — home, marriage, community. Where is something missing right now that you are uniquely equipped to address?

SABOTEUR WATCH — Pleaser — she gives her gifts to be approved of, not to serve God. Notice today: are you being warm and present with people from love, or from the need to be received?

EVENING REFLECTION

What did you notice was missing today — and did anything in you move toward it?

Teaching: when you explain something, something lands differently. You mentioned wanting to be more outgoing with people at Church, open to new connections. What do you want to offer to the people God is sending you?

MORNING REFLECTION

Prophecy: the Spirit-given ability to say what needs to be said even when it is costly. You are careful with Edgar — not preaching, but looking for moments to speak truth gently. Name one true thing you have felt compelled to share recently, or one you have held back.

SABOTEUR WATCH — Pleaser — she gives her gifts to be approved of, not to serve God. Notice today: are you being warm and present with people from love, or from the need to be received?

Week 4

Where Do I Need to Turn?

Faults, Patterns & the Movement Toward God

"Return to me with your whole heart." — Joel 2:12

THIS WEEK'S TEACHING

T in R.O.O.T.E.D. is Turning — the movement of conversion. Not a single event but a daily direction. This week we look honestly at the patterns that pull us away from God and name the specific turn He is inviting.

A NOTE FOR YOU, WHITNEY

Whitney — your fault pattern is: I want to be known → I fear I won't be received → I reach for comfort or relief → I resist the surrender that would free me. You named it yourself: 'I tell myself that I don't matter and I just need to suck it up.' This week you are not trying to eliminate that cycle. You are learning to name it and turn it toward God each time it appears.

WEEK AT A GLANCE

MORNING ANCHOR	Conversion is not a destination. It is a direction. Turn again today.
VIRTUE FOCUS	Abandonment — Name one thing you are trying to control today. Say aloud: 'Lord, I give You this.'
SABOTEUR WATCH	Controller — she cannot surrender what she cannot predict. Notice this week: where are you managing outcomes instead of trusting God? Especially with Edgar.
EVENING GIFT	Tonight, name one moment of surrender from today — even a small one.

Lord, I know the ways I run from You. Vanity, sensuality, the need to control. Today, I turn again. Not because I have it together, but because You run toward me. Amen.

MORNING REFLECTION

Vanity for a Melancholic is the ache to be known rightly — to have your effort seen and received. You are working very hard: at your job, as a mother, as a new Catholic, as a wife. Where do you feel most unseen right now?

SABOTEUR WATCH — Controller — she cannot surrender what she cannot predict. Notice this week: where are you managing outcomes instead of trusting God? Especially with Edgar.

MORNING REFLECTION

Sensuality for a new mother is the exhausted reach for ease when the demands feel relentless. You mentioned going back to work after putting Charlie to bed. What are you reaching for right now to relieve the weight? Is that reach ordered or disordered?

Spiritual Sloth: waiting until you feel ready, until conditions are right, until you have more time. Where are you waiting in your faith life instead of moving? Is there something in your relationship with God that you are postponing?

Week 5

What Am I Choosing?

Election, Daily Decisions & Living From the Inside Out

"Choose this day whom you will serve." — Joshua 24:15

THIS WEEK'S TEACHING

E in R.O.O.T.E.D. is Election — the daily choices that form us. Every day is made up of small elections that either move us toward God or away from Him. This week we bring the ordinary decisions of your life under divine light.

A NOTE FOR YOU, WHITNEY

Whitney — closing the laptop at 5pm is an election. Praying the Rosary before you check your phone is an election. Sitting with Charlie instead of cleaning is an election. These feel small. They are not small. They are the daily choices that form the woman Edgar will watch, the mother Charlie will remember, and the Catholic you are becoming.

WEEK AT A GLANCE

MORNING ANCHOR	You are not defined by your last choice. You are always free to choose again.
VIRTUE FOCUS	Humility — Ask for help with one thing today that you would normally handle alone.
SABOTEUR WATCH	Hyper-Achiever + Pleaser together — they conspire to make every election about performance or approval. Notice: what are you choosing today for God versus for an audience?
EVENING GIFT	Tonight, name one election from today that you are proud of — even if no one else noticed.

Lord, today I will make hundreds of small choices. Let each one be an election toward You — even the imperfect ones. Teach me to choose from love, not fear. Amen.

Election — What did I choose today? What did I want to choose but didn't?

D

Dwelling — Where did I feel most rooted and known today?

BRIDGE THOUGHT

Where I am: I feel like I'm not doing enough — as a mother, as a new Catholic, as a wife.

Bridge: I am a branch, not the Vine. I bear fruit by remaining, not by straining. One faithful election at a time.

Is this Bridge Thought true? Can you believe it tonight?

EVENING GIFT — Tonight, name one election from today that you are proud of — even if no one else noticed.

"You are not defined by your last choice. You are always free to choose again."

TODAY'S INTENTION

MORNING PRAYER · Read aloud before you write.

Lord, today I will make hundreds of small choices. Let each one be an election toward You — even the imperfect ones. Teach me to choose from love, not fear. Amen.

☐ Humility — Ask for help with one thing today that you would normally handle alone.

MORNING REFLECTION

Your Queen Goal election is Rosary in the morning and reading at night. How is that going? Not a performance review — just honest. What makes it easy? What makes it hard? What do you notice when you do it?

SABOTEUR WATCH — Hyper-Achiever + Pleaser together — they conspire to make every election about performance or approval. Notice: what are you choosing today for God versus for an audience?

EVENING REFLECTION

What did your Queen Goal election feel like today?

EVENING · R.O.O.T.E.D. EXAMEN

R

Reality — What was actually true today — not the story about it, just the facts?

O

Origin — Where did my strongest feeling today come from — past, temperament, wound?

Week 6

Where Do I Dwell?

Abiding, Fruit & the Life That Is Rooted and Known

"Remain in me, as I also remain in you." — John 15:4

THIS WEEK'S TEACHING

D in R.O.O.T.E.D. is Dwelling — abiding in God, remaining in Christ, bearing fruit that lasts. Dwelling is not arrival. It is the posture of the journey. The daily choice to stay close to the Vine.

A NOTE FOR YOU, WHITNEY

Whitney — you began this journal entering the Church and becoming a mother in the same season. You are finishing it still in that season — but you have been named, you have been seen, you have turned. Your King Goal is being tended. Your Queen Goal is taking root. And Edgar is in God's hands, which is the safest place he can be.

WEEK AT A GLANCE

MORNING ANCHOR	Fruit comes from abiding, not striving. Stay close to the Vine today.
VIRTUE FOCUS	Fidelity — Show up to one practice today even when you don't feel like it.
SABOTEUR WATCH	All of them — the Hyper-Achiever will make this a performance review. The Pleaser will want to show you've grown enough. The Judge will list your failures. Answer all of them with: I am a branch. I remain in the Vine.
EVENING GIFT	Tonight, on the final evening, write what you want to carry forward from these six weeks.

Lord, let me remain in You today. Not achieve, not perform, not earn — just remain. You are the Vine. I am the branch. Without You I can do nothing. With You, everything bears fruit. Amen.

MORNING REFLECTION

Where do you feel most at home — most like yourself, most close to God? It might be at Mass, at the park with Charlie and the dog, in morning prayer, in a warm kitchen. Describe that place as specifically as you can.

SABOTEUR WATCH — All of them — the Hyper-Achiever will make this a performance review. The Pleaser will want to show you've grown enough. The Judge will list your failures. Answer all of them with: I am a branch. I remain in the Vine.

MORNING REFLECTION

Dwelling in the Church: you are about to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist. Write about what you want to carry into your sacramental life. What does 'dwelling in the Church' look like for your daily life — for a woman with a laptop that closes at 5 and a Rosary in the morning?

Your Vanity fault is the ache to be known and received. In the Eucharist, God gives Himself to be received by you.
